

Announcement

Following today's Conference call on the half-year financial results, it is clarified that in response to a related question from an analyst, the Chairman replied that the Company is considering various acquisition scenarios and when there is something specific, the Company will immediately inform the investment public in accordance with its standard practices and the rules of the Capital Market Commission.